REPORT OF TRAP-SHOOTING COMMITTEE.

BOSTON, Jan. 13, 1891.

To the Members of the Massachusetts Rifle Association:

GENTLEMEN,—The Trap Shooting Members of the Association have held nineteen meetings at Walnut Hill during the past year, devoted to sweepstake and practice shooting, and to competition for the prizes offered in the "Diamond Pin" and "Keystone Trophy" matches. No special tournaments have been held to attract the attendance of outside shooters.

The interest of the year has centred upon the Diamond Pin Match, of which a detailed report is given below.

DIAMOND PIN MATCH.

Contested on alternate Wednesdays from May 14 to December 24, — 17 competitions in all, — under the following conditions: —

Early in the fall, the Keystone Target Company presented to the Association a handsome badge. This was put up for competition on Wednesday, Oct. 1, and was shot for on alternate Wednesdays thereafter until Dec. 24.

KEYSTONE TROPHY MATCH.

Conditions: 100 Keystone targets, — Keystone system, — to be shot in scores of 20 each day, on any five of the seven days named above; 100 being the possible. Competitors will be handicapped by the Association Trap-Shooting Committee. Contestants making equal scores, including their handicap, will tie. Ties will be shot off at 100 birds, on the basis of the match; ten-gauge guns, 18 yards; twelve-gauge, 16 yards. National Association rules.

The trophy was won by Mr. J. N. Frye, on the following scores, exclusive of handicap: 19, 14, 17, 18, 19. Total, 87.

On Wednesday, July 9, "Ladies' Day" was observed at the range. The weather conditions were all that could have been wished, and the occasion was in every way enjoyable.

The amount of trap-shooting during the year has not been large, but your committee are able to report that the financial results are gratifying, for by the detailed statement and vouchers, this day delivered to the Treasurer, it appears that a balance of $184.32 remains to the credit of this branch of the sport after the payment of every obligation.

Your committee recommend that suitable matches be provided for the shot-gun men during the coming year, and that the interest in the sport be not allowed to lose strength. Inspection of the membership list shows that, of our 201 members, 67, or exactly one-third, are interested to a greater or less degree in trap-shooting. This statement needs no comment; it simply shows that, in no small degree, the interests of the trap-shooters are the interests of the Association.

In closing, your committee beg to make grateful acknowledgments to the following individuals and firms for valuable contributions to the prize lists of last year's matches: —

Keystone Target Company; Rogers & Brothers; Meriden Cutlery Company; Dennison Manufacturing Company; J. P. Lovell Arms Company; Wm. Read & Sons; Dame, Stoddard, & Kendall; Appleton & Litchfield; Jacobs, Whitcomb, & Co.; W. P. Dustin, Esq.; Hon. E. J. Neal; L. T. Mulligan, Esq.

O. R. Dickey,
H. W. Eager,
WILLIAM E. PERRY,
Trap-Shooting Committee.

REPORT OF PRIZE COMMITTEE.

BOSTON, Jan. 13, 1891.

To the Members of the Massachusetts Rifle Association:—

GENTLEMEN,—The condition of the Association's finances during the past year has warranted this committee in making a liberal outlay in the matter of prizes, and the following table will show that the competitors in our matches have been rewarded suitably for their efforts.

Cash paid for dies, medals, and badges.....	$636 52
Cash prizes	291 00
"Merchandise" prizes, to value of	167 00
	$1,094 52

The above figures do not include the cash (percentage) prizes paid in the Military Match of the Spring Meeting, nor the prizes, aggregating $358.00 in value, in the Shot-gun Match, which latter were secured mainly through the personal efforts of Mr. James N. Frye.

The Committee recommend that the generous policy of last year be continued in 1891, believing that the surest way to build up and maintain an interest in the sport is by providing an ample number of suitable prizes for the encouragement of those who form the real strength of the Association,—the active members.

A number of medals, besides sundry merchandise prizes, still remain in the hands of the committee, and will be available for the matches of 1891.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. FRYE,
W. C. PRESCOTT,
J. E. KELLEY,

Prize Committee.
